

III.

A. SUMMARY

From at least November 2004 through August 2005 (the “relevant period”), an individual working for Acceleration Capital, who was responsible for clerical, accounting and compliance matters, misappropriated One Hundred Ninety Thousand Eight Hundred and Eight-Three Dollars ($190,883) from Acceleration Mercury Fund 4X L.P. Fund, a commodity pool operated by Acceleration Capital. This individual concealed his theft by: (i) altering the pool’s bank and trading account statements; and (ii) creating and causing to be issued to pool participants false monthly account statements. By this conduct, the individual, who was an agent of Acceleration Capital, committed fraud in violation of Section 4b(a)(2)(i), (ii) and (iii) of the Act. Pursuant to Section 2(a)(1)(B) and Commission Regulation 1.2, 7 U.S.C. § 2(a)(1)(B) (2002) and 17 C.F.R. § 1.2 (2006), Acceleration Capital is responsible for the fraudulent conduct of its agent. Accordingly, Acceleration Capital, through the acts of its agent, violated Section 4b(a)(2)(i), (ii) and (iii) of the Act.

B. RESPONDENT

Acceleration Capital, LLC, a Delaware limited liability corporation, is headquartered in Northridge, California. Acceleration Capital is registered as a commodity pool operator and a commodity trading advisor and was the commodity pool operator of the commodity pool Acceleration Mercury Fund 4X L.P. Acceleration Mercury Fund 4X L.P. (“the pool” or “Acceleration Mercury Fund”) is no longer operating. Acceleration Capital’s president is Yuri Plyam (“Plyam”).

C. FACTS

From September 2003 to August 2005, Acceleration Capital operated a commodity pool known as the Acceleration Mercury Fund. The pool traded commodity futures on behalf of approximately sixteen pool participants. Acceleration Capital maintained a trading account at a Futures Commission Merchant (“FCM”) and a bank checking account, both in the name of the pool.

Between approximately September 2003 and August 2005, an individual, acting as an agent of Acceleration Capital, performed various clerical, accounting and compliance duties for Acceleration Capital. The individual’s responsibilities included preparing the monthly account statements that were sent to Acceleration Mercury Fund pool participants.

Between November 2004 and August 2005, this individual misappropriated $190,883 from the pool for his own use and benefit. He perpetrated this fraud by writing at least fifty-eight checks payable to himself from the pool’s checking account and forging the signature of the account’s only signatory on each check. On numerous occasions, he surreptitiously transferred funds from the pool's trading account to its bank account for the purpose of misappropriating such funds.

To conceal his misappropriation of Acceleration Mercury Fund monies, the individual regularly altered the pool's bank and FCM account statements and created false account statements to be sent to Acceleration Mercury Fund pool participants.

D. LEGAL DISCUSSION
